Company history/background

The restaurant has a long history in L'Estartit (over 40 years!). The current owners are the founder's children and have been working at the restaurant for over 25 years.

Their restaurant service caters to both local and international customers, weekend visitors, and tourists during peak season.

The restaurant is distinguished by its large terrace (80 seats). The entire terrace is covered by retractable parasols to provide shade during the day.

The restaurant serves a popular, high-quality menu, with a variety of dishes, among which fish and seafood are a highlight.

The restaurant can be expanded with a bar-lounge
