Company history/background

It is about a webshop that I founded during the pandemic. I sell stylish men's shirts and sweaters.

Due to lack of time, I have never really been able to put energy into this small business. I have a large stock of luxury shirts and sweaters, as well as the necessary luxury packaging and a machine to personalize the shirts. The website has also been fully developed.

We sell shirts and sweaters ONLY online

Unique selling points

We operate under our own brand name, making price comparison impossible. This results in a nice gross margin.

The possibility of personalization is a great selling point.

Other

The perfect buyer is someone who understands webshops and is capable of taking the right photos and posting them on social media themselves. You can do this perfectly well as a side job.

As a buyer, you do not need to have starting capital. Only a fixed down payment at the bank needs to be taken over.
