Company history/background

We are looking for companies across diverse sectors to further diversify our investment portfolio. Our interest ranges from startups and growing SMEs to well-established businesses with a long history.

We are open to various forms of collaboration: silent partnership, loans, equity investments, and, where appropriate, full or partial acquisitions. We do not focus on one specific industry; both innovative and traditional sectors are of interest.

We are an investment company based in Barcelona, with a long-term vision and an international outlook. Our team has experience in analyzing and supporting businesses at different stages of development. We combine capital with strategic insight, but we can also remain entirely in the background as a silent investor if desired.

Unique selling points

What sets us apart is our flexibility and broad focus. While many investors restrict themselves to one sector or deal type, we are open to a wide range of opportunities. We aim for mutually beneficial partnerships, where both the company and our investment firm can achieve sustainable advantages.

We do not only think in terms of short-term returns but also attach great importance to long-term value.

Other

We are seeking serious, high-quality conversations with entrepreneurs or advisors who are interested in working with a reliable investment partner. Discretion is, of course, guaranteed.
