Company history/background

Producer of unique, high-quality bakery products (e.g.: sandwiches, oliebollen,...)

Of which these possess such quality that one can claim a place in the bakery world. Such that the competition finds it difficult to respond to this.

I have been active in the bakery industry for 20 years, specifically in the sale of bakery products. However, the market for small, traditional bakeries continues to shrink. To such an extent that I wish to make a professional change in order to advance in life. I aim to further develop an existing business myself, focusing on a high-quality product and the necessary service to the clientele.

Unique selling points

I started working at my parents' company from the bottom of the ladder, handling warehouse management, hygiene, and deliveries to customers by truck. For the past 10 years, I have also been working in sales, company management, staff supervision, and prospecting for future clients.

Through this, I have been able to build up the experience to command respect from both staff and clientele. As such, this can only benefit the company, as I have gone through all facets of this. This enables me to solve problems arising within the company quickly and purposefully.

Other

I would like the transferor to stay on for some time (minimum 6 months). So that he is aware that the company he is handing over is falling into good hands. And so that both parties have a good feeling about the takeover.
