Company history/background

The company has been in business for over 80 years and has an extensive track record. With its dedicated team and modern fleet of equipment, it does not shy away from any challenge.

The company carries out a wide range of concrete works for its clients, including foundations, casting piles, pouring and finishing floors, machine foundations, and installing reinforcement—covering the broadest sense of the term.

Unique selling points

With its long history, the company has built an excellent reputation in the market. Thanks to its committed team and up-to-date machinery, it is able to execute projects for its customers efficiently and to a high standard.

Other

The company may be very well suited to a strategic buyer looking to expand its geographic footprint and strengthen its team.

It may also be highly attractive to an MBI candidate who wants to build expertise in the concrete sector.
